The School

Holland Hall is an independent, coeducational, Episcopal day school that provides a challenging, comprehensive educational experience grounded in a rigorous liberal arts, college preparatory curriculum that promotes critical thinking and life-long learning. The 364 students attending ninth through twelfth grade abide by an honor code. Holland Hall's 40 Upper School faculty members have an average 20 years teaching experience, and 65 percent of them hold advanced degrees, including 5 who hold a PhD. Historically, 100 percent of Holland Hall graduates attend post high school-graduate educational opportunities. Holland Hall is recognized by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education for superior college preparation.

Facilities

Holland Hall's 167-acre south Tulsa campus includes creeks and ponds, an outdoor classroom, an eight-lane, all-weather track, two cross-country trails that loop through the woods, as well as a dozen tennis courts, a golf putting and driving practice green, and fields for football, baseball, softball, field hockey, and soccer. Holland Hall's facility includes the 50,000-square-foot A.R. & Marylouise Tandy Dining and Wellness Center, All Saints Chapel, seven science labs, three libraries containing over 60,000 volumes, and the 70,000-square-foot Walter Arts Center designed for use by students and numerous arts organizations.

Accreditation and Membership

Holland Hall is accredited by the Independent Schools Association of the Southwest, recognized by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education, a member of the National Association of Independent Schools, National Association for College Admission Counseling, Great Plains Association for College Admission Counseling, Association of College Counselors in Independent Schools, College Board, National Association of Episcopal Schools, and since 1968, Cum Laude Society.
